

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, June 14, 1932

Died: Tuesday, November 26, 2019

Janet L. Saxon, 87, of Clark, passed away on Tuesday November 26th, 2019 in her home, surrounded by her loving family.

Janet was born on June 14th, 1932 to Lonon Floyd and Bessie Justine (Walton) Smith in Meadville, PA. She was a graduate of Meadville High School. Janet was affectionately known by her family as a devoted housewife and homemaker. On July 17th, 1954 she married her husband John Michael Saxon, who survives at home. Janet and John were married for 65 years.

She was a member of Clark Trinity United Methodist Church. Janet enjoyed modeling for various companies, gardening, and traveling with her husband. She was a very talented artist creating works in paintings and drawings. She cherished her pets and furry friends. Most important to her was spending time with her family and particularly her grandchildren.

Janet is survived by her loving husband John M. Saxon, daughters, April (Gary) Lazor of Jupiter, FL, Brenda Tishov of Sharpsville, PA grandchildren, Christopher Joseph of Sharon, PA, Jessica (Christopher) Clark of Hubbard, OH, brothers, Carl (Elsie) Smith of Meadville, PA, Elmer Smith of Meadville, PA, and also her nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by father, Lonon Floyd Smith, mother, Bessie Justine Smith, daughter, Michelyn Saxon who passed away September of 2017, sister, Maxine Raffle, brothers, Lonon Smith, and Daniel Smith.

Friends may call Sunday December 1st, 2019 from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm at SHERMAN Funeral Home & cremation Service 2201 Highland Rd. Hermitage, PA. A final prayer will be held at the end of calling hours.

Burial will take place in St. Michael Byzantine Catholic Cemetery.
